

Biography
2022-2023 NABP President,
Reginald B. “Reggie” Dilliard, DPh

Dr Dilliard, the owner and principal consultant for Gladstone Consultants and former executive director of the Tennessee Board of Pharmacy, automatically assumed the position of president. Previously, Dr Dilliard served one-year terms as president-elect and treasurer. He also served a two-year member term (District 3) on the Executive Committee from 2017 to 2019, and a three-year member term from 2005 to 2008. Before serving as executive director of the Tennessee Board from 2013 to 2021, he was a member from 2000 to 2006. Prior to his work with the Board, Dr Dilliard was a pharmacy manager at Walgreens for three decades. Dr Dilliard was also the pharmacist and owner/manager of Super D Drugs for more than 10 years. As an active member of NABP, he has served on many of the Association’s task forces and committees, including the Task Force on the Regulation of Pharmacist Care Services, the Task Force to Develop Recommendations to Best Reduce Medication Errors in Community Pharmacy Practice, the Committee on Law Enforcement/Legislation, and the Committee on Constitution and Bylaws. Dr Dilliard is an active member of several other pharmacy organizations, including the Tennessee Pharmacists Association, where he served as president and chaired several committees. Dr Dilliard earned his bachelor of science degree in pharmacy from the University of Tennessee College of Pharmacy.
