

Downtown Madison Restaurants

A. Coopers Tavern $$ 20 W Mifflin St.
Upscale Irish tavern serving pub grub and international beer in a warm, contemporary venue.

B. The Old Fashioned $$
23 N. Pinckney St. #1
Wisconsin-themed, retro-style tavern offering beers, brats, and cheese-curd (all sourced in-state). [Closed Sunday.]

C. Lucille $$ 101 King Street
Vintage industrial-chic tavern with three floors serving wood-fired and steel-pan pizzas, plus cocktails.

D. The Great Dane Pub $$ 123 E. Doty St.
A changing roster of craft brews and pub eats served in a lively venue with beer garden and pool tables.

E. Tavernakaya $$ 27 E. Main St.
An industrial tavern offering a sushi bar, ramen bowls and Japanese tapas along with local and Asian beers.

F. BelAir Cantina $$
111 Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd.
Stylish yet relaxed Mexican joint offering creative cuisine and a large selection of tequilas.

G. Tornado Steak House $$$ 116 S. Hamilton St.
Old school steak house with a rustic supper club vibe, serving classic steaks, chops and seafood.

H. RED $$$
316 W. Washington Ave. #100
Sleek eatery serving creative sushi rolls and grilled Japanese fare in modern environs.

I. Cento $$$ 122 W. Mifflin St.
Farm-to-fork Italian restaurant with housemade pastas and wood-fired pizzas, plus a sizable wine list.

Additional restaurants are located off Capitol Square and on State Street.